

RESOURCES FOR HISTORY TEACHERS

1.) Stanford History Education Group (SHEG): Reading Like a Historian curriculum engages students in historical inquiry. Each lesson revolves around a central historical question and features sets of primary documents modified for groups of students with diverse reading skills and abilities. There are 73 US History lessons and 37 World History lessons. Free access to all materials visit <https://sheg.stanford.edu/rlh>

2.) UC Davis History/Social Science Project: Teach the Election: Classroom-Ready Resources for the 2016 Election. For more information and a sample lesson visit <http://chssp.ucdavis.edu/programs/election>

3.) PBS Documentary On Two Fronts: Latinos & Vietnam Curriculum and Video Modules available for classroom use. Visit online at Watch for details...

In the spring of 2016, join fellow Santa Clara CCSS members and the City of San Jose Historian Judge Paul Bernal in a private tour of the newly restored Roberto Adobe and Sunol House Museum. The recently acquired buildings belong to the Pioneers of Santa Clara Valley who have graciously opened their doors to our local council. ontwofrontsmovie.com/engagement--resources

Upcoming Events:

San Francisco Asian Art Museum Teacher Workshop "Looking East: How Japan Inspired Monet, Van Gogh, and Other Western Artists", Saturday, November 21, 2015, 9:30 am – 12:30 pm

Alameda County Office of Education, the Bay Area Council for the Social Studies, & UC Berkeley History/Social Science Project Weekend Conference: From Selma to the Bay: Walking the Talk, October 17 & 18, 9:00 am

Jewish Partisan Educational Foundation (JPEF) E-Learning Webinars – If you are interested in learning and teaching about Jewish

CCSS Mission:

The California Council for the Social Studies promotes and supports quality Social Studies education through service, advocacy and leadership development. We are collectively committed to strengthening the teaching of the Social resistance during the Holocaust, take a course today and teach it tomorrow. E-courses take 20 – 60 minutes and you walk away with terrific materials all from the comfort of your own home.

<http://elearning.jewishpartisans.org/elearning/> courses

Santa Clara County Office of Education hosts Echoes and Reflections a multi-media workshop that teaches about the Holocaust. Free teacher's guide and extensive resources will be supplied. January 20, 2016, 4:00 pm – 7:00 pm.

<http://santaclara.k12oms.org/1053-97090>

Studies disciplines through professional development, public awareness and collaboration at local, state and national levels.